Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I'm writing to give my full and enthusiastic support to this listed building application. The building was in a terrible state when it was purchased, and the transformation is nothing short of remarkable. The owners have clearly invested a huge amount-financially and emotionally-into restoring it with exceptional care and attention to detail. The result is stunning. The work has been done so sensitively, using high-quality materials that complement the Listed Building and the surrounding Conservation Area perfectly. The rear landscaping and improvements have only added to the sense of quality and respect for the site's heritage.

Having seen the interior, I can honestly say it's beautiful-so many original features have been retained, and the finish is superb. I love it! I really can't see how the Council could object to such a thoughtful and high-quality restoration.

Kind regards
