Dear Andy,

Apologies for not coming back to you sooner.

I hadn't realised the yew was in such a sorry state. Perhaps if I had received this information sooner, I wouldn't have requested an AIA etc.

I have no objection.

Kind regards

Emma

Emma,

Sorry to bother you, I am just chasing up an informal response in relation to my email from a couple of weeks ago, just because the agent is chasing.

Kind regards,

Subject: FW: Yew Tree - Report - Orangery application

Emma,

DM/25/0692 – The Slatch, 50 Hickmans Lane, Lindfield - Demolition of the existing conservatory and replaced with an orangery. A new car port/car cover to the front of the garage.

I have requested a tree report in relation to the above application as you can see from the plans and google maps image that a tree is clearly within 15m of the car port (to the front of the existing garage).

I have received the attached email from the agent in response to my request for a tree report.

Wondered your thoughts, I assume we still need some form of report confirming the ill health of the tree in question?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
