Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am strongly in favour of this plan which will enable this much needed community asset to continue and thrive. The plan will have no visual impact on the high street and will only be seen from the rear where there is a 1980's estate. Handcross is now a large community but the amount of shops and services on the High Street has dwindled over the years. This plan to extend the already popular business will enable the AMIN family to extend their services to the community.

Kind regards
