Stance:	Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Handcross News is one of if not the longest standing successful business in Handcross, many of which have moved on through the years. The shop has supported the village as much as possible through good and bad times, helping the elderly through covid and always ensuring customer's needs are met. An asset to the Village without a doubt. Extending the premesis only makes sense given the success of the shop already and expanding the goods available (always at reasonable cost) would be only a good thing for the many local houses and businesses who regularly use the shop.

Kind regards
