Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	All the new houses should have EV panels and linked to the area supply . The local electrical grid has insufficient capacity to support additional homes, so the last minute change of plan will put substantial strain on the already minimal amenities. The local sewage/drainage system is already at capacity and cannot support this additional development. And the current roads cannot handle more cars. Traffic is already bad during rush hour

Kind regards
