Dear Tanya, Anna

Following my initial complaint on 11th August concerning the operating hours of Giggleton at weekends I wish to advise that even though they have ample parking at the bottom of the Business Park, they still have visitors parking next to my property boundary on Saturdays and Sundays (photos are from Sunday 23rd Nov afternoon)

The car parking is not being policed by the operators of Giggleton which shows that they have no consideration over their activities and how they affect the adjacent property, hence my objection to their weekend operation.

You can see my rear gate in the picture so you can appreciate how disturbing this is to ourselves and adjacent neighbours with our dogs constantly barking.

As I've mentioned in previous correspondence, I accept that there will be disturbance Monday to Saturday lunchtime, but this is ridiculous.

Please can you investigate further.

Yours faithfully
