Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Supporting a local newsagent's quest to expand on the high street is an investment in the community. Local businesses like these bring a unique character and vitality to our towns, providing personalized service, familiar faces, and a convenient spot for everyday essentials. By expanding, they can offer an even broader range of products, create new job opportunities, and contribute more to the local economy. Let's support their growth and show that we value the heart and soul of our high street!

Kind regards
