Stance:	Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I would like to add my support to this application. Marlow House was in an awful condition and the renovation works carried out to the property by the applicant have clearly been done to a very high standard. The works, both internally and externally, have been carried out sensitively and appear to respect the character of the listed building. It is difficult to see why the Council would have an issue with the works carried out which clearly improve and enhance the conservation area and its High Street location.

Kind regards
