| Reasons for comment: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Comments:            | This is a beautiful spot, enjoyed by so many to connect with nature, there are fewer and fewer of these spaces available. Also, there are no extra provisions in place for any new residents. Amenities and services are already stretched as they are. So sad |

Kind regards
