Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Wickham Way is a massive part of people's lives. People and myself included take our dogs there to walk them. We use the bike jumps as a social spot to meet people and have fun. The fields add to the greenery and the amount of wildlife that live upon these fields shouldn't be damaged either. I do not agree that there should be houses put on this beautiful bit of land. If you want houses, go build them in your own garden and see how you like it

Kind regards
