Description of the Proposal

Please note in regard to:

- Fire Statements - From 1 August 2021, planning applications for buildings of over 18 metres (or 7 stories) tall containing more than one dwelling will require a 'Fire Statement' for the application to be considered valid. There are some exemptions. View government planning guidance on fire statements or access the fire statement template and guidance.
- Permission In Principle - If you are applying for Technical Details Consent on a site that has been granted Permission In Principle, please include the relevant details in the description below.
- Public Service Infrastructure - From 1 August 2021, applications for certain public service infrastructure developments will be eligible for faster determination timeframes. See help for further details or view government planning guidance on determination periods.

Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

The proposal is for the installation of a small single-storey timber building measuring 5.5m x 3.5m on an existing concrete pad (approximately 7m x 4.5m) at Duckyls Farm Centre, Selsfield Road, West Hoathly. The building will be positioned on the footprint of a former outbuilding shown on the submitted title plan, confirming that the proposal reinstates built form on an established building location.

The building will sit entirely on the current hardstanding and will not require any excavation, vegetation removal or changes to surrounding land. It will be constructed from responsibly sourced pressure-treated timber with insulated cladding, Multifoil insulation, thermally efficient IzoPanel roofing (U-value 0.21 W/m²K), and grey uPVC double-glazed doors and windows.

Glazing will be limited to two elevations. One short elevation, which is the elevation nearest to the neighbouring dwelling, will contain double doors only and no windows. One long elevation, facing internally towards Diagrama’s own buildings and land, will contain one long fixed window and one long full-length opening window. The remaining two elevations will have no glazing.

The building will have electricity and Wi-Fi only, with no plumbing or water connections. It will be used as a quiet, flexible space supporting the Residential Care Service and Day Opportunities programme for adults with a learning disability. Typical use will involve 1–2 people at a time for staff workspace, confidential and safeguarding conversations, one-to-one meetings with adults with a learning disability, family discussions and private calls or inspections by external professionals. Use will be low-intensity and quiet, consistent with existing 24-hour care operations on the site.

The proposal will not alter access or parking. The existing driveway already provides access to the pad. Landscaping will consist of low shrubs in keeping with planting elsewhere on the farm. The building’s natural timber finish and grey joinery are intended to sit unobtrusively within the rural character of the High Weald AONB.

The nearest residential neighbour is approximately 50m away. As no windows face towards them, and as the building is single-storey and modest in scale, the proposal is not expected to result in adverse effects on neighbour amenity, landscape character, ecology or the AONB.

Has the work or change of use already started?

Existing Use

Please describe the current use of the site

Duckyls Farm Centre is a 100-acre rural site operated by Diagrama Foundation as a combined Residential Care Service for adults with a learning disability and a Day Opportunities programme delivered under contract with West Sussex County Council. The wider site includes the residential care home (operating 24 hours per day), horticultural areas, farm buildings, grazing land and woodland. These facilities support life-skills development, farming tasks, horticulture and animal care.

The development site is an existing concrete pad measuring approximately 7m x 4.5m, located beside the main driveway entrance. The pad is currently used only as an informal patio area with a bench and is not in active operational use. No vegetation grows within the pad and it does not form part of any landscaped or ecological feature.

Historic use of the site

The submitted Land Registry Title Plan (WSX52260) shows a rectangular former building on the exact location of the concrete pad. This confirms that the pad corresponds to a historic building footprint, indicating previous built development on this part of the site.

To the applicant's knowledge, there are no listed buildings or listed structures on the holding, and the pad is not known to be part of any designated heritage asset. The surrounding land comprises grass and driveway surfacing.

There is no known history of contaminative uses on or near the pad. The intended use of the proposed building—quiet staff workspace and occasional private meetings with adults with a learning disability and their families—is low-intensity and similar to activities already undertaken on the site.

The proposal does not involve excavation or ground penetration. If the planning authority wishes to require a condition regarding contamination, the applicant would be willing to comply.

In summary, the wider site is in active charitable and agricultural-type use, and the development area is a small concrete surface that historically supported a building. There are no known heritage or contamination constraints relevant to this proposal.

Supporting information requirements

Where a development proposal is likely to affect features of biodiversity or geological conservation interest, you will need to submit, with the application, sufficient information and assessments to allow the local planning authority to determine the proposal.

Failure to submit all information required will result in your application being deemed invalid. It will not be considered valid until all information required by the local planning authority has been submitted.

Your local planning authority will be able to advise on the content of any assessments that may be required.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:

Under 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

We are building a cabin which is less than 25m square and can be removed at any time to leave the site as it was. There is already a concrete pad in existence due to a historic building on the site.

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.

Please state how foul sewage is to be disposed of:

- ☐ Mains sewer
- ☐ Septic tank
- ☐ Package treatment plant

- ☐ No

If Yes, please provide details:

We already have existing procedures and policies in place for waste and recycling on site. This particular cabin will use those existing procedures and share the waste provision already in place for the main Care establishment.
