Hi Andy

All good here thanks and hope the same applies.

The deck and closeboard fencing have progressed, but the applicants have not installed the steps yet, having halted to pursue the size increase.

I've not seen it first-hand but they sent me the picture below of current state of play in case this saves a journey. I can get a more expansive view if req'd?

Best

Hi Jonthan,

Hope you're well. Have received the above variation app. On the application form it seems to suggest the development has started? Is that the case? Has it been completed? If so it'd be useful if I could visit the site and take a look and would be able to do next Tuesday (21st) or Wednesday (22nd am) if either suit. If the development hasn't commenced or hasn't got very far then its probably not worth me visiting again.

Kind regards
