

In support of tree work application for 18 & 19 Oldlands Avenue, Balcombe.

The pollarded lime trees at 18 and 19 Oldlands Avenue are in good condition, due to regular maintenance.

Photo 1 - 18 & 19 Oldlands Avenue lime after leaf fall showing abundant shoots

Photo 2 - 18 & 19 Oldlands Avenue lime after leaf fall showing abundant shoots

Photo 3 - 18 & 19 Oldlands Avenue lime after leaf fall showing abundant shoots

Photo 4 - Limes 18 & 19 Oldlands Avenue showing abundant foliage in June

Photo 5 - Limes 18 & 19 Oldlands Avenue showing abundant foliage in May

Photo 6 – Example of neglected top heavy lime pollard, elsewhere on Oldlands Avenue, Balcombe. The large limbs can threaten the tree, are more prone to breaking and when pruned leave large wounds, giving access to pathogens and disease

Photo 7 - Large wounds or openings on neglected repruned pollard with little leaf cover May, elsewhere on Oldlands Avenue, Balcombe

Photo 8 - Neglected repruned lime pollard with little leaf cover May, elsewhere on Oldlands Avenue, Balcombe

Photo 9 - Stump of former lime pollard lost due to neglect and disease, elsewhere on Oldlands Avenue, Balcombe

Photo 10 - Dangerous, neglected and diseased lime pollard, elsewhere on Oldlands Avenue, Balcombe