Reasons for comment:

Comments:	My main objection to the planning application is the height. It will tower over all the other buildings in the area, dominating the centre of the village. Two or three storeys over the retail would be much more desirable and would lessen the impact on the properties opposite that will be made very dark if this application is allowed. It will be good for the village if the library moves into the ground floor part and will improve the area which is attracting mice and
