Dear Rachel,

I have reviewed the plan relating to the landscaping at this site and require some further information.

I note that the key suggests that a Prunus avium will be planted but the plan is not clearly showing where this will be planted. If it is to be planted with the other ornamental shrubs, then I would question whether this is an appropriate selection. Please could you request further information to clarify?

We can manage this through email going forward.

Kind regards

Emma
