Hi Steve,

Thanks for this. I have had a look at the Technical Note-I think the RSA should be updated by the Auditor prior to Detailed Design so we can address any points. I think rather than the Audit completely re-commissioned a further note or update from the Auditor outlining that the have viewed the latest drawings would be suffice and any further points raised will need to be addressed by the Designer.

Kind regards,

Jamie

Hi Steve,

Yes they have emailed. Do you want it via an email or formal response? If the later then ideally we should be re-consulted but I can probably do it within 14 days.

Jamie

Hi Jamie

I've received the attached technical note regarding the above planning application, which the applicants advise has also been sent directly to the LHA.

Could I ask for any further comments on the attached note please.

Thanks

Steve
