

Low overhanging limb coming from adjacent Beech which is in the TPO area.

The works are part of a regular maintenance programme to retain the tree at a suitable size for its location.

The works would not be detrimental to the trees health nor affect the amenity value of the area.