Dear Sirs

I am writing to you as on objection against the planning proposals outlined under the above references.

I have been a resident of Crawley Down for all 40 years of my life. This once quiet, leafy 'village' is at breaking point in terms of being able to cope with its existing population.

The bit that saddens me the most is when i ask myself, at what point are we going to stop doing this irreversible damage to our local countryside. It is devastating for wildlife and I just can not understand why brown field sites or unused offices are not prioritised.

Regards

Hannah Ahearne
