Reasons for comment:

Comments: We have concerns about the very close proximity of the proposed extension to the foundations and boundary of our home and feel this would have a significant overbearing impact and loss of outlook.

In addition the height and length of the extension will affect the light entering our home in the dining/living room; especially when considering the 45-degree test.

We also are concerned due to the lack of detail in the drawings as to what the side elevation overlooking our property will look like.

Kind regards
