Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I lived in Ansty for around 15 years. I used to live with my mum in a cottage on Cuckfield Road before I eventually had to move out, but unfortunately at the time I couldn't find anything suitable to stay in the village. Because of that I know first-hand how limited housing options can be locally. From what I've seen, this looks like a well thought out and nicely designed development. I really can't see it having any detrimental impact on traffic or safety given the relatively small number of homes. If anything, I think developments like this can actually benefit a community by allowing new families and local people the chance to stay in or move into the village.. as did the very recent adjacent Marwick Close & Upton Drive development! I fully support.

Kind regards
