Hi Peter,

Email with additions added. Many Thanks.

I would like to raise my concerns regarding the recent planning application for the proposed double-storey rear extension at 45 Priory Way, Haywards Heath, RH16 3LS.

Having reviewed the proposed plans, I would like to raise an objection related to the proposed extension height and therefore the windows on the upper floor, more specifically the master bedroom window.

I am concerned that the extension would result in a loss of privacy in our garden, as well as overlooking our rear bedroom. This north-facing window would have a line of sight towards these areas of our property.

I would therefore ask whether it would be possible to consider whether this particular window should have obscure/frosted glazing, which I believe would provide a suitable compromise.

This admendment would allow light to enter the master bedroom at 45 Priory Way, while also protecting the privacy of the neighbouring properties directly facing the extension. Especially, considering the elevation on the property.

I would greatly appreciate if these comments and concerns could be taken into consideration when assessing the application, in order to reach a satisfactory solution for all neighbours impacted.

Kind regards,
