Dear Elaine

Thank you for your email, and for taking the time to try to discover the land ownership at the rear of your property on my behalf whilst I was on leave last week.

I have also had no success making contact with the site developer/owner, via the displayed telephone number or online.

Today I have found out a contact email for the site developer from the Senior Planning Officer, Joseph Swift, who has been dealing with the site. Consequently, I have arranged for a neighbour notification letter to be sent out to the relevant contacts today. This allows them 21 days to comment on your proposal, should they wish.

Unfortunately, this means that the decision on your application will be delayed, and I apologise for this.

Please can you agree in writing by return email to me to an Extension of Time for the Decision Target Date to 17.06.2026 for the determination of your application?

Please contact me if you would like any further assistance or guidance.

Regards
Anna

Hello Anna,

It was lovely to meet you yesterday. I have walked around to Morton road and tried to call the number on the site entrance. It says the number is not valid when I call it!

I have done an online search to see if the houses were listed for sale and have not been able to find any information.

I hope you had a great holiday.

Best wishes and kind regards
