Dear Ms Lynn,

Thank you for your email and I am pleased to understand that you intend to recommend approval.

Thank you for spotting the contradiction between the planning application and the planning statement. I can confirm that the description in the planning statement is incorrect. The building is a three-storey residential block containing 9 individual flats.

I hope this settles the issue.

Many thanks.

Kind Regards

Dear Mr Moxham

I hope this e-mail finds you well.

I write with regards to the above planning application pending consideration. In the process of writing a report to recommend that the application is approved, I note that the attached Planning Statement at section 2 refers to the properties as a terrace of 9 two storey domestic dwellings located on Beech Close. Yet the plans submitted relate to a three storey block of flats.

Just thought best to query this with you - I am assuming that this is an error in the Planning Statement?

Please can you provide clarification.

Kind regards

Debbie.
