To whom it may concern

Application: DM/25/1050.

Proposal: To erect a single four-bedroom house on land adjoining Barn Cottage, Cuckfield Road, Ansty, Haywards Heath.

I feel I must strongly object to the above proposal.

Given the extremely tight constraints of the site and its close proximity to neighbouring properties some of which are Grade II listed, it seems to me that what is proposed amounts to highly unsuitable infill development in what is a delightful rural area.

Apart from its sheer impracticality, access to and from the site via a narrow, shared, single track onto what is an increasingly busy road will undoubtedly compromise road and pedestrian safety.

The proposal will also lead to a reduction in the local amenity afforded by the surrounding trees, several of which are protected.

I urge the Council to reject it.

Yours faithfully,
