Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Since the Triangle have decided not to promote Padel and the nearby PadelHub have increased their prices to unaffordable levels, this is needed for the area, especially in low impact sites like this. Padel is enjoyable, accessible (at the right price) and responsible for getting more middle age men and women active than any other sport. It is likely to be an Olympic sport over the next few cycles also, such is the growth of the sport across the world. Sussex has the opportunity to be a centre of excellence for Padel thanks to its amazing growing network of players and if Olympic success is to be realised, we need more facilities like this

- with a variety of indoor and outdoor play available. It is also a great substitute for other addictions such as alcohol, class A/B drugs and smoking. As a therapist I strongly support this and have seen the benefit first hand.

Kind regards
