

The works are to maintain the tree at a suitable size and height for its location. This will improve the sunlight to the rear garden which is currently being blocked and affecting the reasonable enjoyment and use of the garden area during the summer months. The works will not be detrimental, nor will it affect the trees amenity value.

The subject tree is located in a domestic rear garden and has a very large spreading crown.

