Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am writing to formally object to the proposed extension of operating hours for the McDonald's restaurant located near my home. My objection is based primarily on the prevention of public nuisance. The premises already generate a consistent level of noise and disturbance, particularly during late evening hours. Activity within the car park is frequently disruptive, including loud music played from vehicles and repeated use of car horns. There have also been incidents where lasers have been directed from the car park into neighbouring residential properties, including mine, which is both intrusive and concerning.

In addition, the area at the front of the premises is often used as a gathering point for groups of young people. These gatherings regularly obstruct the footpath, making it difficult for pedestrians to pass and contributing to noise and disturbance in the early hours of the morning.

Extending the operating hours is likely to exacerbate these existing issues, increasing the duration and frequency of disturbance to nearby residents and further undermining the quiet enjoyment of our homes.

I do not believe the proposed extension would provide any meaningful benefit to the local community or residents. Instead, it appears to serve only the commercial interests of the business, while placing an additional burden on those living nearby.

For these reasons, I respectfully request that the application to extend operating hours be refused.

Kind regards
