Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am objecting if this domestic planning request is subsequently changed to a business request. The property has recently had a free standing office garden building erected and now converting a garage into a room and upgrading the conservatory would make ideal set up for a nursery/after school/play area. Our home backs onto their garden and the noise would be substantial. We are a retired couple who enjoy our garden and the relative quiet.

This may be me just overthinking asi don't want to upset our neighbours but it is a concern.

Kind regards
