Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application

Reasons for comment:

Comments: Having lived in Crawley Down for over 17 years, it is clear that the doctors and other local amenities, and particularly the infant and junior school would not have the capacity to cope with a further increase of residents.

The current Wychwood development has taken over two years for all properties to become inhabited, so the I would question the need for so many additional houses to be built in this area.

Kind regards
