| Comments: | The aluminium bi-fold doors seem in effect to be a west facing opening wall, allowing sound such as music and party noise to freely escape the confines of the house. The current north eastern opening is plainly more considerate in this respect as the closest and vast majority of neighbours (I count eleven households) live the opposite side of Southdown House to the south and west. To my ears the summertime noise emanating from the Southdown House garden already understandably exceeds that of the |
