

PLANNING NOTICE

Mid Sussex District Council Planning Committee will be considering applications for planning permission for the following development on 17th July 2025 at 10.00am.

The Council will be considering the following applications:

- 1. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.
- 2. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.

The Council will be considering the following applications:

- 1. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.
- 2. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.

The Council will be considering the following applications:

- 1. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.
- 2. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.

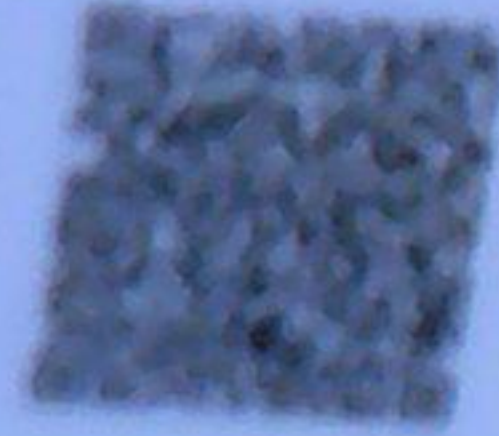

- Mid Sussex District Council Planning Committee will be considering the following applications on 17th July 2025 at 10.00am.
- Mid Sussex District Council Planning Committee will be considering the following applications on 17th July 2025 at 10.00am.
- Mid Sussex District Council Planning Committee will be considering the following applications on 17th July 2025 at 10.00am.

The Council will be considering the following applications:

- 1. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.
- 2. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.

The Council will be considering the following applications:

- 1. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.
- 2. Application for planning permission for the construction of a new house and garage on the site of an existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage, 100m from the existing house and garage.

Scan the QR Code on your smart phone or laptop to view this application online

THE
BOX