This architectural floor plan shows a building layout with a central corridor. On the left side of the corridor, there are four large, empty rectangular rooms. On the right side, there are two large empty rectangular rooms. Between these two large rooms on the right, there is a complex area containing a staircase, a small square room, and several smaller rectangular rooms and alcoves. The plan is drawn with simple black lines on a white background.

The floor plan shows a large rectangular building with a complex internal layout. At the top is a large open area, possibly a courtyard or a large hall. Below this is a series of rooms and corridors. On the left side, there are several rooms of varying sizes. In the center, there is a large room with a smaller room attached to its left side. To the right of this central room is another large room. At the bottom of the plan, there is a staircase and a small room. The plan is drawn with simple lines and includes some furniture like beds and tables in certain rooms.
