Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This will be a massive mistake there is a president already set in Coulsdon Croydon where an Aldi has been built near a roundabout and the traffic comes to a standstill in all directions when people cannot get into the car park. With Sainsbury's and Waitrose so close as well the additional traffic so close to the train station as well will be unmanageable.

We already have all of the major supermarkets within a few miles from Haywards Heath so why do we need more corporate machines taking support for the small amount of local businesses we have in Haywards Heath they will not be able to compete.

This will be a massive mistake and I urge you to reject this make something of Clare hall for the community dont just knock it down for no reason.

Kind regards
