Reasons for comment:
Comments:	My husband and I are huge fans of Aldi supermarkets and have been hoping for years that Aldi would have a store in Haywards Heath. We are pensioners so have a limited income. Aldi is consistently at the top of the leader board for value for money. They also sell a huge amount of British products. We can drive but it would be far easier for us to be able to shop in Haywards Heath rather than have to go to Lewes or Crawley. More employment opportunities in Haywards Heath would be welcome as well for those currently looking for work in a shrinking job market in the area. Please approve this planning application.

Kind regards
