Reasons for comment:

Comments: I am writing to express my full support for the proposed refurbishment and upgrade of the existing buildings. The plans for window replacement, roof insulation, and structural improvements, along with the new side extensions, bin storage, bike facilities, and landscaping, represent a thoughtful and much-needed enhancement to the site.

I believe this project will significantly improve the building's usability, appearance, and sustainability, while also contributing positively to the local area. Park Centre will be a jewel in the local community.

Kind regards
