Reasons for comment:

|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Comments: | As a Bolney resident I strongly object to this development on the grounds that the narrow roads in this area are totally inadequate for both access for the heavy goods vehicles delivering plant and materials to the site including various working trades and then the traffic of the residents on a day to day basis as public transport in Bolney is vertually non existent. |

Kind regards
