

BROOKLYN CLIFF

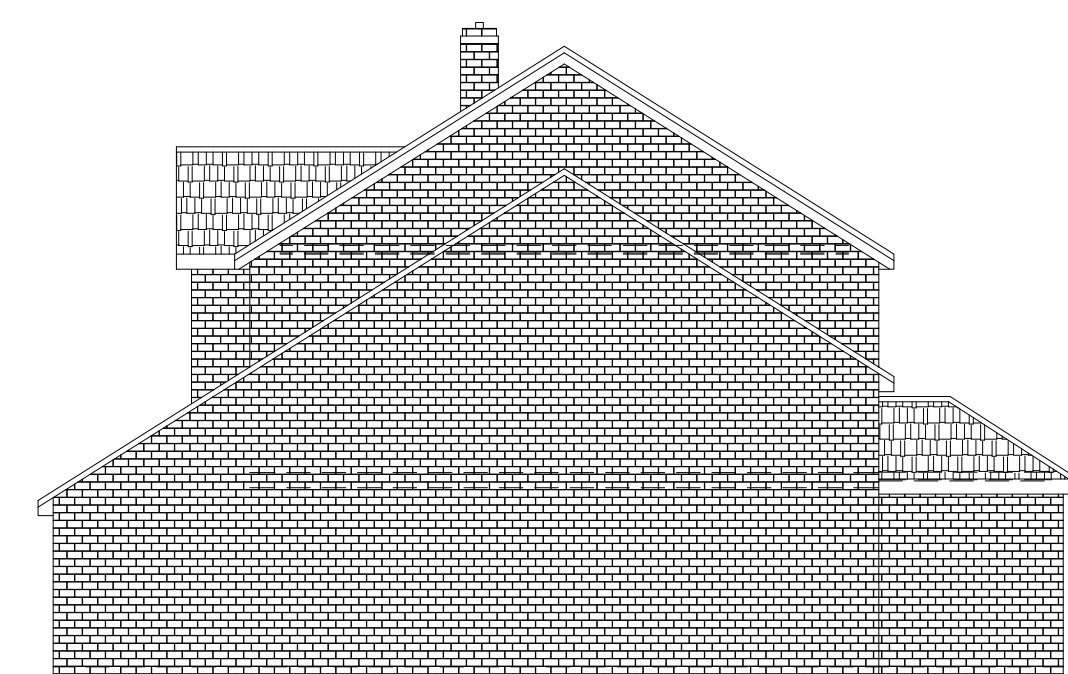

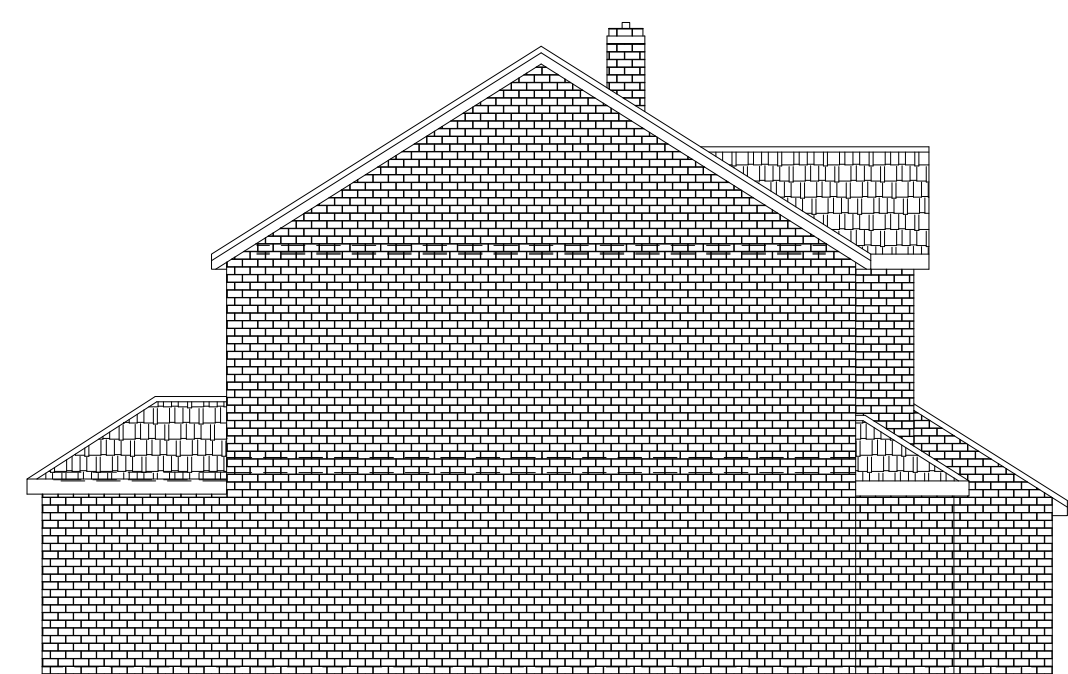

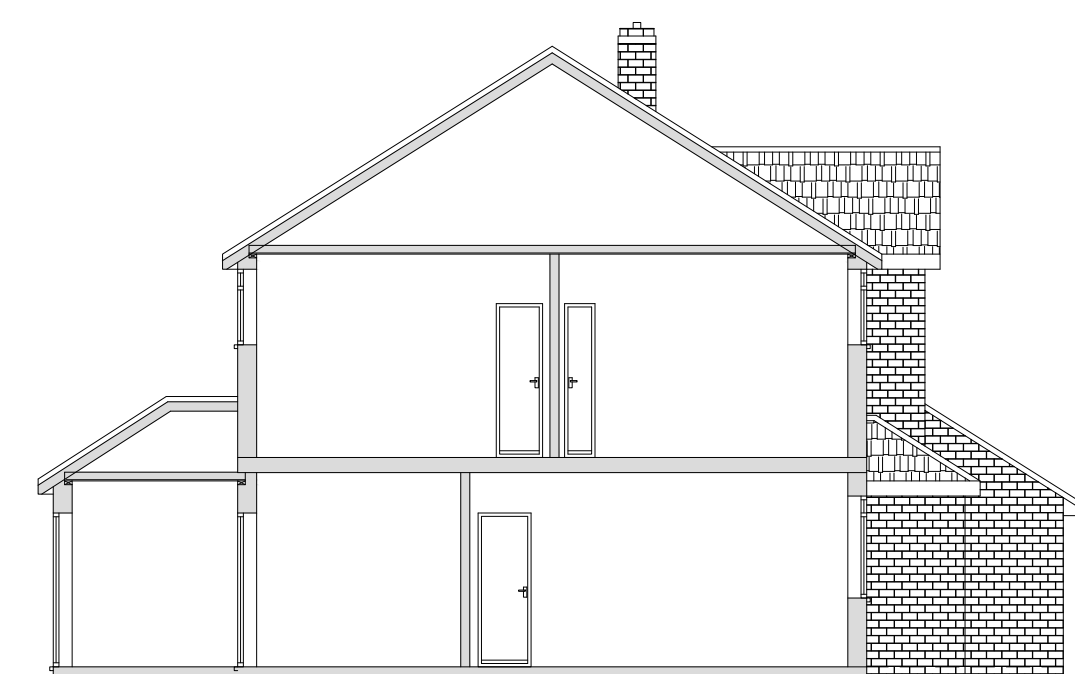

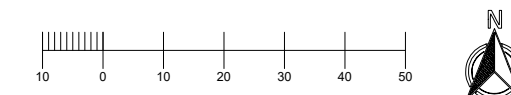

The diagram illustrates a roof layout with several distinct sections. At the top left, a section is labeled 'PITCH ROOF'. Below it, a larger section is labeled 'PITCH 1/2 ROOF'. To the right of this, another section is labeled 'PITCH ROOF'. Further right, a section is labeled 'PITCH 1/4 ROOF'. A 'ROOF LIGHT' is shown in the lower left section. A section line 'A-A' is indicated at the top right. The entire roof surface is covered with a hatched pattern, and a small square symbol is located in the center of the lower right section.

Floor plan of the first floor. The plan shows four bedrooms (BEDROOM 01, BEDROOM 02, BEDROOM 03, BEDROOM 04), two en-suites (EN-SUITE), a bathroom (BATHROOM), and a central staircase (DN). The plan also shows 'PITCH ROOF' areas and 'ROOF LIGHT OVER' features. A closet (CLO) is located in Bedroom 04.

Architectural drawing of a two-story brick building. The building features a gabled roof with a chimney on the left side. The roof is labeled "ROOF GORE". The facade is made of brick. On the left side, there is a small porch area with a sign that reads "ROOF GORE". The main facade has several windows: a large double window on the ground floor, a smaller double window on the second floor, and a single window on the second floor. There is also a door on the ground floor with a small porch. The drawing is a black and white line art illustration.

A detailed line drawing of a two-story house. The house features a brick facade and a gabled roof with a central chimney. The front facade includes a central entrance door with a small triangular pediment, flanked by windows with decorative shutters. Above the door is a transom window. To the right of the door is a large window with shutters. The second story has three windows: a double window on the left, a single window in the center, and a double window on the right. A garage is attached to the right side of the house, and a small roof section is visible above it. The drawing is a black and white line art illustration.
