Stance:	Customer objects to the Planning Application
Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Further to the recent updates made by Fairfax, we would like to register our objection to the rewilding proposals. It is clear that the applicants have no basis to support the proposals and this application should be rejected in its entirety. The applicants seek to destroy natural land, under the guise of creating a parkland. The land is already enjoyed by the Cuckfield and wider community. It is evident that any further development (even if under the guise of creating a parkland, despite this already being open land) would do nothing to further the area, and could well detriment the environment given the amateur proposals submitted here. Please throw out this application.

Kind regards
