North – Adjacent neighbouring dwelling which appears to have been extended to the rear through a single storey conservatory.

South – Adjoining dwelling within the terrace with a slight stepping in to the rear and in siting.

East – Garden amenity space out to the east of the existing dwelling and a flat roof outbuilding which is shared with the neighbouring property to the north.

West – Western elevation appears to act as the rear of the dwelling but appears to have been the front elevation back in time. Features a flat roof porch style extension and letter box.

Streetscene – Primarily terraced housing featuring horizontal lapped cladding at first floor level.
