Reasons for comment:
Comments:	We are pleased that this entire property is subject to planning consent that facilitates a reversion to from C2 to C3 use. The fact that the application assessment specifically caters for the provision of a larger family sized home, with no changes to external appearance or elevations (other than removal of the fire escapes), whilst retaining existing vegetation including the protected group of trees to the east/rear of the plot (which our property overlooks), is very reassuring.

Kind regards
