Reasons for comment:

Comments:

Bolney is a small intimate village, by slapping 200 houses would overwhelm the village, put more pressure on the A272 which is already a dangerous road, there is no no facilities for 409 plus people, no doctors surgery, the only shop is at the garage which is limited, this is all about developers greed and does nothing for Bolney, building on farmland refuses the amount I food that is produced and not acceptable, more food would need to be imported increasing our carbon footprint, there is nothing in favour of this development but a lot against it, I urge you to refuse permission for it

Kind regards
