Dear Andy,

I write further to my emails dated 2nd and 15th January 2025 and note that no revisions appear to have been made to the design of the proposed apartment building located to the south of the existing pub.

My client trusts you remain mindful of all of the representations previously submitted on the above dates when forming your recommendation.

While my client acknowledges that some residential development on this part of the site could be acceptable in principle, they are firmly of the view the current proposal constitutes crass overdevelopment due to being overbearing, unsightly, and lacking in sensitivity to its surroundings.

Best regards

Paul Budgen
