Reasons for comment:

Comments: A 1 bedroom dwelling to an area otherwise occupied by car parking, extractor fans and refuse bins adds almost nothing to our area.

The construction will undoubtedly cause much disruption to all who access this car park building site. There is no area to store construction materials/skips on or near the site. Having an area on Church Road for this would affect our business both for those needing to park and accessing our building.

Overall this is too much to ask of us and our neighbours for such a small development.

Kind regards
