Reasons for comment:

Comments:	The local schools, doctors, dentists etc are becoming over subscribed with all the new developments already taking place in Hassocks. People are reporting not having water at certain times of day when everyone is showering and eater usage is high at peak times before work hours. This is unfair to residents who have lived here their entire lives to be suffering at the hands of developers who are not considering if the local resources can take the additional strain. The last thing that is needed is 26 new flats on the high street. Or any other new build sites for that matter.

Kind regards
