Reasons for comment:
Comments:	We have recently moved into the above address we took on this apartment for the outstanding views had we known planning for a lattice mast was being applied for this would have definitely made our decision not to move here We strongly disagree to this going ahead as we believe this will have a devastating effect on our view of the downs along with restrictions to our current allocated parking and access required for the upkeep and maintenance of the mast alone along with reported health concerns within close proximity of a residential area of natural beauty

Kind regards
