Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I strongly object to this application. Our road is in a very bad state already and will not tolerate all the heavy traffic that will need to use this for access. Also it does say that there are dedicated passing places. No there aren't! To have 8 separate dwellings being sold for self build will entail even more heavy vehicles covering a longer period of time. With all these other developments having received planning permission in the village we are already going to have problems with all the amenities that are needed.

Kind regards
