Thank you for taking my call earlier and persevering with my lost voice.

As discussed, we confirmed that it is application DM/24/1225 that should be the varying application. If you need me to update the planning documentation to reflect this, please let me know.

Thank you.

Best Regards,

Alison

Dear Alison,

Regarding the above application, please could you confirm that DM/23/0817 is the correct application that you are seeking to vary? If that is the case that would mean that the other variation of condition applications that have been permitted in the past would not be able to be implemented and the only application that was previously implemented can be DM/23/0817.

Thank you,
Kind regards,
