Reasons for comment:

Comments:	It would be a great shame to lose yet more trees in this area. The trees in question also provide a substantial screen between Bluebell Gate and Beacon Rise, and are in keeping with the green appearance of the estate. For us, we have always looked out on to a long line of trees which extend to the entrance of the estate, and this is certainly preferable to looking out at houses, which would be the consequence. Ownership of the trees that are marked for removal in the plans needs to be established. They were certainly there before 1
