

In regards to reducing the heights on G1 (Beech group). We would be lowering only certain sections that overextend out of the upper crown. The amount lowered would be approximately 1 to 1.5m to allow for an even height line. This would leave a residual height of approximately 9 to 10m.

