Reasons for comment:
Comments:	As a neighbour who drives in daily .. it is already difficult pulling in and out of the driveway.. the last thing we need are more cars.. The wall is lovely and makes the close very private.. and the plants have sentimental value..and have been well cared for.. I believe - knocking down brickwork especially in a conservation area - just to put a car there is such a shame.. Our whole little area is lovely and private and works so well ..

Kind regards
